

PURIM HOST TOOL

RIDE HOME PLANNER

As a host, you're not just providing food and drinks. You're creating an environment. And that includes making sure everyone gets home safely. This isn't overstepping - it's part of hosting well.

If you're hosting Purim, one of the most important questions of the day is:
'HOW WILL PEOPLE GET HOME SAFELY?'

Look, we know you don't want to babysit adults - and that is not what we are doing here.

This step is just about making sure those who come to your house know how they will get home ahead of time.

AS A HOST YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

- ✓ ASK HOW PEOPLE ARE GETTING HOME
- ✓ OFFER TO CALL RIDES
- ✓ SAY "LET ME ORDER YOU AN UBER"
- ✓ HOLD CAR KEYS IF NEEDED
- ✓ MAKE THIS NORMAL, NOT AWKWARD

PRO TIPS

- ✓ BUDGET FOR 2-3 UBERS OR HAVE SOMEONE AT YOUR PARTY WHO'S PLANNING ON STAYING SOBER WHO CAN HELP GIVE LIFTS IF NEEDED
- ✓ ASSIGN A 'RIDE COORDINATOR' (DOESN'T HAVE TO BE YOU!)
- ✓ MAKE LEAVING EASY - WE DON'T WANT ANYONE FEELING TRAPPED

USING THIS RIDE PLANNER

SET EXPECTATIONS IN YOUR INVITE.

Copy one of the options below and paste it into your WhatsApp group, text, or email invite. That's it. You've now made it normal to talk about rides.

FILL IN THE GRID AS PEOPLE RESPOND.

Some will tell you their plan. Some won't. That's fine - you're not responsible for chasing everyone down. Just track what you know.

DAY-OF: HAVE RIDES READY TO OFFER.

Budget for 2-3 Ubers, or ask a sober friend/family member if they can help drive people. When someone needs a ride, just say "Let me order that for you" or "David can give you a lift" and do it. No big conversation needed.

COPY-PASTE INVITE LANGUAGE IDEAS

Choose one that feels most like you:

Please let us know how you're planning to get home - we're happy to help arrange rides if needed!

*Getting here: [address].
Getting home: Let us know if you need a ride - we have some designated drivers coming anyway - happy to ask for you.*

*Quick logistics Q - who needs rides home?
Planning ahead so no one's stuck.*

The key: Ask early. Make it easy to say yes.
